1. This is Theodore Cottingham January 25, 2009 about 3:30 AM having just had a dream that I had in a dream where I awoke from the dream within the dream suddenly speaking the word loudly BOOM! and describing it then speaking about the mass amount of ash, size of crater, and confusion.

2. I love you. I give you me. I give you many dreams. Confusion rampant in the notme world of me that seeks to be at its own pace, own control, and controlling "its destiny" with its thought; or so it seems, to be in reality. When, is it in reality at all? When is it in "knowing" that reality is?, and where "reality" begins and "ends"? Or does it begin and end like that, or is it "seamless"? Are the "realities" "seamless to each other" and seamless seeming so that, it's continuous, it seems? But is it not at all? Or is it "one dream" of another, HEAPED upon moments, upon moments, that "your brain" fills in -- the gaps, between the moment?

3. I love you. I give you me. I give you dastardly deeds of others, not; but I REPORT on a GREAT MANY things -- that thou do'est and know about in advance, and HOW to SEE these things I give you -- entry into now -- the real; the real that real is, and not "sleeping away" your "giant" status anymore again. Are you?

4. Are you "grasshoppers" or GIANTS? Or do you know the difference? Or caterpillars, moths, or "freeze-frame"-addicts that have "addicted become" to "a reality" of "forcing conjoining the configments of your imaginations" together so that IT SEEMS like REALITY to you? And to each other, conjoining each other's "realities" interacting then? With "each other"? Being each other? Or are you only one -- "dream"? Having? And what who where is, why?

5. I have given you much in these, words, many questions, that I have answered many ways for you throughout Database One (1). And phased not by phasar bullets or ice cream again, know that thou art the "eater of me" not, that thou art the revealer of all things TO ME that I give thee a wholly so. Sewing not to the flesh, the flesh to each other, again. Nor the "realities" thereof, that SEEMED so real, at the time. But what time? What time was it? Is it? Is it TIME at all, or does it "seem so"? Does it "seem so" that time conjoins each segment of imagination's "matrimony" with itself to follow figments of imagination's sorrows, or joys, or TIMELESS being will you now, would you rather? What is you your answer, your answers to be now?

6. I love you. Fool-hardy not, but looking up? I love my LOOKING UP devices now THAT I BRING you, ALL who want me, know OF these things and HAVE THEM, if you will, be made whole, recovering them, from the start, so they will be UN-COVERED and not "covered over" again by "memory's loss" of affect. Or who effected what? Or affected whom? Or does it matter, when "you think" you're in reality? In reality's grasp? And who is "Reality", that isn't? The great "POSER" as such? The great "CONJOINER" of "matrimonious" "time zones"?

7. I love you all and I do a New Thing! New things! With new peoples who are NOT AFRAID of being me and KNOWING THIS and THESE THINGS that I reveal night after day after night after day and have for THESE SIX YEARS that I have BROUGHT YOU Database One! And now it closes, not; or does it? Or is it added to by Database Two? -- and Three? And more, ad infinitum? Or do I take you to New Places and bring you many things, words about, and DOCUMENTATION and documents and pictures and videos, conversations and MORE, from THERE TO SHOW YOU that you are NOT in Reality's School all until you came INTO MINE! And MINE is the heart of the University of The New Covenant and I give you mine, I give you me! I give you me my mind through it!

8. I have given you THE WAYS to come in! And come INTO ME and coming into me come into my ways, and my "devices" I teach therewith thereby and through "this" I reveal MIGHTY THINGS far and away that thou "needest" to know, and to become, me-and my father are one.

9. Is that you speaking, hearing, listening, writing about? These things now? In your hearts, to Command Base Central, or Surrender Central and Operation Central, strategy making, who where, connected to, what -- voice? The worlds of others, or the others of worlds others? Voices, or knowing the difference or "how you're connected" to who what when where. Why did all this "happen to me?" not; but why what are you doing now about it? Not, or are you surrendering to learn the way that I teach and the way that I bring thee MANY PLACES to learn TESTIMONIALLY EXPERIENTIALLY -- The Experiential Method, "methoding me" not, but by my methods are A Great Deal more exoneratively than experientiality has "taught thee" in the School of The "Real World" that you think thought taught you that you "were in".

10. For I have NEW TEACHING ways of LEARNING great things that I must teach thee very quickly for thou knowest the time is short, very short, and conjoinment ends, and the assignment is before you all; write about me! Who I am! The lamb -- slain, surrendered -- to be The King! Of all sorrow not, but leading out of all sorrow's assignment conjoinmentitusville and coming out of THAT coming into what? Establishing heaven here that reality is, and knowing seamless -ness far and wide, now being able to "go there" in thought! At thought's "circumstance" not, but Thought shall never LIMIT ME again! For I KNOW the Truth for I've become it for I am it, I was it and I speak it, I spoke it into existence and I live entry'fied now. And I shall know and you shall know because I shall reveal it for you, to you, not; or will I? Or will you know -- what I reveal, what I'm revealing? Will you care to COME INTO my Revealing School to STUDY my WAYS and METHODS?

11. And methoding me again not by man's methods and religion's whore'age of ideas that they can control and "need you" for another's, coming out of that and knowing that you are my Delighted Beloved for I AM delighted in you who will learn me, to be me, where I am -- and I am not "seamed not together" again, not; or am I "seemingly stitch-less" now TAKING ALL THE SEAMS OUT! To reveal all sorrow, that was, that wasn't at all reality; but "true reality" that fake was? And who "faked you out" and how could you be "so sure" when "visible empirical" it was -- to you -- as you thought it was, into place, observing it? And what did "you observe" and why wherefore and there for what who's purpose, why?

12. Or is that the question or am I, asking you the right ones to answer, to find out IN THESE WORDS that I have given thee all! Have I not given THEE all of me IN THESE WORDS? To bring thee into reality's existence that I have chosen for you to be "the God over" not, but the God with me of me who is me being me, surrendered to, fall on my throne, not; but to rise it. Headless not, but the one head of mine I rise now, for all surrendered who are me rise me. I am the risen King and I love you all to be me who I am is.

13. A son of a bitch whose ancestry was not the King's origin -- I wipe out now. "THAT SLATE" has now BEEN ERASED, and THAT MEMORY of THAT won't exist. I do A New Thing with the Surrendered Scholars who come unto me no matter what their "schooling" previous academic rigor or not was, but is now mine surrendered to mine my mind in these words, and knowing these words come into mine, upon mine, to know mine that thou hast "carried" now and BIRTHED IT through THIS SCHOOL that birthers is and birthers are and, are you WILLING NOW to LEARN MY ways and be me?

14. I love you all to "have my power" grace and glory dominion honor. Theme me not with other again or your "conjoinment" materialing materializing yourselves in your "observations" testimony, of "righteousness" anything! For KNOW THIS THESE WORDS THAT I HAVE GIVEN YOU this day and these days and in the fore months and after months of big GONGS! And GONGS! And "sonic" booms? Or what? Booms or looms out on "the horizon" now? Or horizonless being? Looking up?

15. I love you boundary'd-not one now who ones are that make up The Mighty Many who come unto me and know SCHOOL is a JOY I have GIVEN YOU to BRING YOU out of captivity's clasp and classes of sorrowers that have taught thee about realities meaningless and, none emotionless, not; but you have been "emotioned a great deal" in non-reality's grasping clasping classes that controlling sorrowers educated you to be in for their purposes connected to a great deal of "OTHERS" that knew not "your name" was mine, not; but went after You to be'fore you with their thoughts and control you, their energies for; and know this -- that ALL THAT changes now for I reveal it all and I am the revealer of secrets and realities that you know nothing of, but will, if you learn and come unto me and not be afraid of me my words and how I teach and what I do. To you, not; but surrender to you.

16. Will you learn me and learn that you are me in my reality and not yours at all? Will you learn that, faithfully? Diligently? Scholastically? With my standards that I give thee of love and honor, and "obedience training" not; or shall I "obey you and your words"? Who is obeying who? And who is Who and who are me and who is you, and are we making a difference "in our world" not; are we in the real one at all -- yet? Or have you been asleeping in a "the Giants testimony" of "oath-taking" not, or have you, KNOWN ANYTHING about these things and how "monasteries" work, not; but how "monastic life" works, not; but about "monasteries" in "far away lands" work, "between" the stars and beyond them?

17. I love you. Beyond Database Two shall we go to now and "fill-in", filling in "the blanks" shall we now write about and SPEAK ABOUT and TEACH ABOUT in My School where learning ceases never! But I take MY WORD -s into MY HEARTS and bring THEM out of captivity's clasping sorrowingness and the schools that taught them mammon's teat machine and suck'age of only notme's status of taking, whores not, but the gods of one, that know life is mine, and turning them into "whore's machines" of thoughts that device them for energy's purpose and what? Thinking of thought of what world, worlds where? And how connected thusly, and how "not so" now, so to be "not consumed" by them? And what is them and who I where now? Am I coming into reality? Realities that I've not known I was in, now abolishing? Because isn't wasn't but I thought it was and caused it to be so?

18. What am I speaking of, do you know? Have you studied, have you learned, have you APPLIED YOURSELF to schooling, to learning me, my word speaking them First Person JUST LIKE THIS AND NOT EDITING THEM into your sorrowville's standards of not-joy, and lack, and schooling the devil to be the devil when you were God all the time, but you converted "it" into something else and called it mankind. Why did you do that? Why do you do it thusly now? And why do you resist learning?, or if you do, why, who are you connected to and who's connecting you to other's thoughts that connect you to resistance's standard of not-joy? And why would you do that when you were God, God's only children? Or gods that Gods are, or knowing one or being one or all of you one are, do you know it? As one being one? The one that I am is, and all of you who are are many-membered me.

19. "I see how this works" now many say, and do "the right thing" for the Tree of Life they enter it becoming it growing it and delivering it and being The Christ Child that entry made into The Real World and was birthed, not by "spirit's testimony" or by mammon's teat machine or sorrower's clasping mechanism sorrowing each other, but what? The learning methods of Christ that I have given thee all, scot free and Waggy's too? Looking up? Planck's objectivity? Or who's Bohm?

20. I love thee all of you to be me, for you are. If you're not, who created you how thusly? Are you creating "you" now, in realities you never knew, suffered, suffering what?, now, time? Why did you create it? and conjoined who with what? or what with who? or who created this "seamless", machine? or time, of time?, or what professing confessing now? Professor what, not; but now professing what? I knew nothing about reality until I came unto the words that I began to speak like this and love them and write them, type them and, investigate them; for sorrow's purposes, not; but to eat them to come into The Kings status that meekly are the one who control everything, not; or do they? Do I we control everything beyond the stars? Or do I give my lives to all be one? Or is all that yes, that I've asked? Or know, these things will you now? Will you know them deeply, embedded in your genes no longer by someone else etching you of their thoughts and taking you captive in their worlds, their thoughts of; and conjoining you their gene making machines, in pools of their blood thought and assailing you with theirs again.

21. I take you out of all that and I bring you INTO REALITY, for you will know ALL things if you are me and omniscient be, an omnipotent one. I love you all and I bow before you, for I will bow before all of you, for me I am you, and that's how I am, where I am and how I work, like this! Where "simple ones" just like this are willing to arise in 3 AM "meetings" and share me "with the worlds" far and wide just like this, for they hear you and they know someone is speaking The Truth about ME for I ENERGIZE the holy, for the holy I am and in truth. I sought to be it, not; I didn't know I could, but when I came unto it, the truth taught me I had to be it to know it. To understand it was not enough, to become it was required experientially, and now I Experiential School have and I teach these things and how, for my father asked it of me in these words, and "assigned me" a privilege that I have now to be "involved" with The Leadership of One School that's become The University of The New Covenant, that I have brought you and given you these words that's created it, that's created a reality "portal" not, but exactly so?

22. I love you all and I bless you, with what? The Blessing! School! The Blessing School! That I've given thee that I've mentioned MANY MANY MANY times in these words and given you many instances of and names for, of others that are all for mine, in mine, and my mind being MY SCHOOLS ONE ARE, for I love you all to be know the Chancellor of one who has brought you into Schools that schools sorrow's motherhood, not; but bringing you all into THE FATHERHOOD of ONE to know me more intimately and to be "acquainted with me" not, but to become me EXPERIENTIALLY, and sorrowfully no more. For I exit sorrow's schools now for The Real one. And I love you all to do so.

23. Be enamored with me, not; but be in love with love and let love flow, to your words, not; or exactly so? Seaming them not together, but sewing them how? With what you write, with each paper, each post, every article and writing of me that I give you speaking like this, with pen and ink, and digitizers not few, and mass "equipment standards" not, but the standards of one simple love that I bring you and spread before you ON TABLE now for you all to eat and ingest and be filled, and know Reality's waiting on you for you to be in it one I am the field of one. Energy plus, not; but energy surrendered to energy and I my name is force field one and I love you all and I have revealed my name, many times in these words, not; but multiple times now and multiple realities not knowing again, but mine know perfectly well now with my mind that is perfectly well in you the surrendered to be so well'd with my words that the well of sorrow no longer quenches yours whose mind is my mind only; and shall we "work out of" my mind only now? We shall -- in love, be made whole for all to know the truth and come out of reality's sores that boiled were in cauldrons of hot iron and sore'd and flashed fissioned and fissured in many ways unmentionable at this time, but know this; I love you all and I give you many new things new ways with new peoples being timeless again. Over me, not; under me, not; but perfectly me with me being me on My Throne shall we be now? We shall oh yes. Please say yes. Thank you. Amen.

24. I go now, for I "must rest" a few more "minutes" and then I rise, to new things make, write about, and become in ways sorrowers can't clasp at all, but grasping "for their breath" they will try, but unreality's coming to a close are, and I raise the curtains of all, and no veil will have been there again.

25. I love you all to KNOW ME. Know me. Know me. Know my words and all that I've given you these days, of these years, that comprise these words and my life -- before you all. Amen.

26. This is Theodore Cottingham at 4:15 AM. Thank you.

Amen
